September 2022

Dear Parents/Guardians of 12th Grade Students:

The Miller Place Guidance Department will be hosting our annual College Application Procedure Night for parents of seniors on Thursday, September 29 at 7:00 p.m. in the Auditorium. The purpose of this program is to review the college search and application process and prepare you to assist your child as they navigate through their post high school planning.

College Application Procedure Night

Program Date: Thursday, September 29, 2022

Location: High School Auditorium

Time: 7:00 P.M.

Designed for: Seniors applying to college this Fall & their Parents/Guardians

The college application process can be daunting without accurate information and support. Some of the topics to be discussed include: application processing and packaging, Common Application, Naviance Guidance program with the application process, and guidelines to assist your family through the final college selection process. We look forward to seeing at this informative program.

Yours truly,
