2:00 p.m.

Good afternoon.

This is Dr. Higuera with important information for parents, students and staff regarding the school schedule for tomorrow, Monday, February 2, 2015.

I am trying to keep you as informed as possible regarding the school schedule for tomorrow, so you have the opportunity to make appropriate plans for you and your family while enjoying your Sunday activities.

As of now, the District will be operating on a two-hour delayed opening schedule for all buildings with the possibility of closing as information regarding the pending storms weather pattern becomes more available.

If the storms impact becomes more apparent later tonight, between 10pm and midnight, such that schools will be closed, I will send you a Connect Ed email message only.

If the storms impact information is not available until early morning, such that schools will be closed, I will send you Connect Ed email and phone messages.

School schedule information will also be available on the District web site, Channel 12 News and various radio station announcements.

For your easy reference, this letter will be posted on the District website.

Thank you and enjoy your Sunday.

Dr. Marianne F. Higuera,
Superintendent of Schools
Miller Place School District
