

just for kids

SPRING
2017

Pre-registration & pre-payment required. Please call (631) 751-0066 x212

Hands-On Art

GRADES K - 4

Thursdays 4:30 -5:30 p.m.

Learn the elements of art, using different materials to create your own masterpiece in each monthly session. Includes exhibition tour and craft.

March 2 Colors of Long Island

April 6 Edible Eden

May 4 Abstract Art

June 1 Sculpture Is All Around Us

Hands-On History

GRADES K - 4

Thursdays 4:30 -5:30 p.m.

Make the past come alive through activities and objects. Visit a different gallery each month and explore history.

March 16 Annie Fallon – 19th Century Postmistress

April 20 From Carriage to Car

May 18 Samuel West – Setauket's Blacksmith

June 15 Homegrown on Long Island

Hands-On Art and Hands-On History are for students in grades K through 4, held Thursdays from 4:30 - 5:30 p.m. $10 per class ($8 for members); $35 for any 4 sessions ($25 for members).

Vacation Ventures

$25 ($20 for members). Pre-registration and pre-payment required.

Mo Willems

February 22 • 10 a.m. - noon

Students in grades 1 through 3 will join a lively discussion with museum educators about author/illustrator Mo Willems and create projects inspired by his work.

Pop Art in Fashion!

April 12 • 10 a.m. - noon

Students in grades 2 through 4 will learn how Pop Artists influenced fashion over the decades and create their own wearable designs with museum educators. Includes story and project inspired by artists' techniques.

Family Drop-In Days

February 23 & April 11 • 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Tour an exhibition and enjoy crafts, suitable for the whole family. Admission is free.

Book Club

May 21 • 3 - 4 p.m.

Families will enjoy a guided tour of Midnight Rum: Long Island and Prohibition, followed by a discussion of Black Duck by Janet Taylor Lisle. Program is free. Families must register in person at Emma Clark library beginning April 22. Books will be supplied at time of registration. For questions, call (631) 941-4080.

1200 ROUTE 25A • STONY BROOK, NY 11790 • (631) 751-0066
Visit longislandmuseum.org for more about kids' programs